Inner Reality - Kingdom of God

By Pastor Sabu Samuel

When Jesus says, “The Kingdom of God is within you” (Luke 17:21), this is a profound spiritual statement that opens our inner eyes to the realities of God’s wisdom. This truth has great potential to change our entire perspective on divine fulfillment and peace. This profound truth teaches us that the kingdom of God is not far away but its within us. The kingdom of God is not an external destination but an inner reality. This inner reality will give us clarity, helps us to be guided by truth and aligns us with the will of God.

The way you can experience the reality of the Kingdom of God is having inner peace. Having inner peace does not depend on external circumstance. When the world around us spins out of control, we can still experience the presence of God in our life. It’s truly about the peace that passeth all understanding. When Christ becomes our anchor, we become confident to navigate life with grace.

Kingdom of God within us is not just about having peace but a place of unconditional love. When Jesus spoke about the Kingdom of God, he was guiding us to connect with the divine nature of God. He was pointing out the connection between the vertical and horizontal relationship. Vertical - our relationship with God and Horizontal - our relationship with people. When we experience the Kingdom of God, it allows us to be kind and have sympathy in certain situations. Having unconditional love allows us to build relationships that will promote divine qualities of love and unity.

In conclusion, when we experience the Kingdom of God we have fulfillment and purpose. When we live a purpose driven life we don’t need external validation but rely upon the one who called us, and he will enable us to finish the task at hand. When Jesus says, “The Kingdom of God is within you” it truly serves as an open invitation to live from a place of divine fulfillment. Do you want to experience God’s abundant goodness in your life? Then you need to connect to this inner kingdom, then you will experience the divine wholeness that will edify every part of your life. When you connect with the inner kingdom, you will have everlasting peace, genuine connection, and true satisfaction.

The Kingdom of God is in You

By Tania Malayil

Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow. So often we become consumed with the future. We fix our eyes on what lies ahead, our goals, our plans, even the final hope of Christ's return. In doing so, we often forget to live in the present moment with God. The Pharisees, in questioning Jesus just before this verse, made the same mistake. They wanted to know when the kingdom of God would appear, expecting something dramatic and visible. In their search for the spectacular, they failed to recognize that the King Himself was standing before them.

This passage has been interpreted in two complementary ways. First, that Jesus Himself embodied the kingdom of God on earth. Second, that through faith in Christ, the kingdom of God now dwells within the hearts of believers. Both are true. Christ inaugurated the kingdom by His coming, and now by His Spirit, that kingdom is planted and resides within us.

What does this mean for us today? Though Jesus has ascended into heaven, He has not left us alone. By the gift of the Holy Spirit, Christ is both with us and within us at all times. In every trial and every season, His presence is near. This is why Jesus placed such importance on abiding in the Spirit, because the Spirit is the affirmation that Christ is within us.

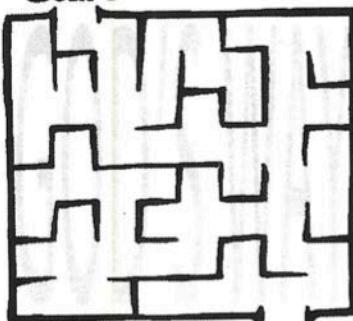

For believers, the Spirit's indwelling is not merely a comfort but also a calling. We as God's children are called to live as ambassadors of Christ, to reflect His love, justice, and truth in a world full of hatred, injustice and lies. Of course, we look forward with longing to the day when Christ will return and the fullness of His kingdom will be revealed. Until then, we are called to do faithful work today, advancing His kingdom through our obedience, service, and love.

So whatever you do, do it for the glory of God and the expansion of His kingdom. Not only in expectation of the fut

Use different colors for each "try."

1. Try this with your eyes shut.
2. Now try this with someone giving you directions while your eyes are shut.
3. Now try this with someone guiding your hand while your eyes are shut.
4. Now try this with your eyes wide open!
